DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 20 recites the limitation "at the start of the actuation stroke" in claim 1, line 12, and in claim 20, line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

3. Claims 1, 20 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. All three independent claims claim in the preamble to be a "dose indicator for a fluid dispenser device", then recite a dose indicator in combination with a fluid dispensing device. It is vague and ambiguous whether the applicant is claiming a "dose indicator" or a dose indicator in combination with a fluid dispensing device.

4. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: In the independent claims 1, 20, and 35 all claim a dose indicator that is actuated by a transmission element, but the claims never claim a pressurized container that moves in relation to a casing in order to dispense its contents, nor do any of the independent claims recite that the dose indicator is integrally housed in the casing that houses the pressurized container, nor does it claims that the dose indicator's display is viewable on the outside of the casing. These missing structural elements are necessary for the device to function, and so must be claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-36 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
